JOY IS RAMPANT OVER BIG VICTORY

University Thrilled With Confidence Since Trimming Boulder Eleven.

GROWTH OF THREE SEASONS.

The University Now Takes Rank With Best Intermountain Institutions in Strength of Student Bodies,

Boulder, 0; Utah, 10, at Salt Lake, Boulder, 45; Utah, 5, at Boulder, 1904-Boulder, 33; Utah, 6, at Salt Lake,

For the first time in its history, Cummings field has seen a real football battie, in which neither side was whipped before the game began, and in which tho playing of the teams was so even that the decision might have gone either way up to the end of the fight. Boulder played a final rally the Boulder defense was impregnable.

THE CRITICAL MOMENT.

The crowd was up on its toes yelling like mad, and Utah had twice demonstrated that she couldn't go through Boulder's line. Another try without making 19 yards would mean that Boulder would get the ball, and Utah would lose the psyclological moment to turn the tide of the battle. Pitt signaled for an right end run. It was contrary to all footoai, precedent for it would carry the ball over at a point where a goal would be imposprecedent for it would carry the bair over at a point where a goal would be impos-sible to kick. Boulder hurled the Utah line back on itself, but Russell was shoot-ing away off to the right, at the very edge of the field, fighting it out with one lone player, right on the goal line, and finally carying the player over with him across the line.

PITT'S TOUCHDOWN.

PITT'S TOUCHDOWN.

The second touchdown was made in a manner just as sensational, and taking advantage of just as narrow a margin of superiority. Utah had been held for downs 20 yards or more away from the Boulder goal line, and Bennion puncet a l.w. sidewise punt to Pitt, and had Pitt been anyone but the speediest man on the field that day, the trick never would have been turned. As it was he gathered the oval in and shot over the line before anyone could close in on him. In field Theraiship that distributed the plays to save the players in the back field, and delivered with never a slip the ball to the right man at the right instant, Pitt made himself a place that it will take a mighty excellent brand of football to surpass.

BOULDER'S FORM.

As for Boulder, the team was in ex-cellent shape. Had it been a game under the old rules instead of the new. Bould-er's chances would have been much bet-ter, for there was many a time the ball was lost because of third down, that would not have been had there been only five yards to gain.

COACH JOS. MADDOCK. Football Methods Received Strong Endorsement at Cummings' Field

nished game of football, and it took a more finished game to win. The victory was the most classy to be won in the inutmentain west, and Utah had to get to be ther toes to win it, andstay up all the time.

For Boulder and for Utah the feature of the game was the fast and sure faciling. There were no blunders on either side. Despite the muddy field, fumbles were fare and each side was cat-like in its power for recovery. When Utah had the tall, and a Boulder tackler laid a muddy sit, on the man who was carrying it he the man who was carrying it he lown in his tracks, to stay down The down in his tracks, to stay down. The clever straightaining of Russell worked well against unfinished players like those from Montana, but when he bumped into Trudigan he was down, and that brilliant broken field running was not to be thought of either for him or for Bennion. Once Russell was free for a touchdown all but for one man. The crowd watched breathlessly as his arm shot out, and hopes rose that the opponent would go face down in the mud as so many diving tacklers have done. But, no. It was finished football that was on exhibition, and the Boulder tackler caught the outstretched arm, trying for a hold on his head, swung the Utah halfback stound and around by it and held him till the others could come up.

HOW BATTLE WAS WON. .

HOW BATTLE WAS WON.

Again at the first touchdown, Russell was past the crowd and one lone man was between him and the goal line. He, too, was playing a finished game, and knew he could not dodge his man as he has dodged so many. So he dove like a tackler himself, meeting the other man's dive, and then rolled himself and his opponent over the goal line.

The play had been ordered by Quarter-back bale Pitt, who made for himself a record such as no Utah quarterback ever before made, and stretched the shoes wern so comfortably by Jimmy Wade, a good full size larger. It was the unexpectedness of it that won the touchdown, Boulder has twice hurled Bennion back in line bucks, and it was the last down, with 19 yards between Utah and the goal lite. This was the vital point of the game. Utah had marched down field triumphant, mouthing the first taste of victory, and a all American sport there is nothing to compare in glory with that prolonged litel that comes with the steady susliked march yard by yard to the opponing spoul line. To be stopped at a distance of 10 yards would mean that the spreme tost had returned a verdict stalist the team's power and that in the

A Woman's Gratitude

"For more than a year I had been a sufferer, completely broken down. I had not slept but two or three hours any night for weeks. I had such awful misery in my head, and oh, I was so irritable. I could not depend upon my judgement, and my memory was failing. I realized that I was losing my mind, and I thought the grave, or worse, the asylum, would be my doom. My doctor said my case was beyond the reach of medicine. I went to a druggist and told him my condition. He recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine; he was pretty sure it would help me, so I bought a bottle. That night I took a table spoonful, and fell asleep in a few minutes, the first rest I had in weeks, and oh, I will never forget that sweet sleep while I live. I have continued taking it, and sleep like a baby, and gain rapidly."

There was no one to blame for Boulder's There was no one to blame for Boulder's defeat. It was a perfect machine against a perfect machine, both working to full capacity, and there was just a shade in Utah's favor on the all important offensive. For this Utah's speedler back field is respensible, playing against a line that had a slight advantage.

PLAYING IN THE LINE.

Utah's line, however, was a wonder, and a surprise to even the team's closest friends. Varley played rings around Farnsworth at center despite the latter's advantage in weight, and only once was disturbed, while presing the ball Last advantage in weight, and only once was disturbed while passing the ball. Last year, with light guards on each side of him, Varley was so constantly harrassed in his attempts to pass that ball, that Utah plays seldem got under way.

This bad pass was a critical one, in which Utah showed her ability to pull out of a hole. It was near the Utah line, and Bennion was stopped before he was able to kick. Boulder getting the ball. Three downs without a yard to Boulder's advantage told what the team could do in a crisis, and how well the ends and tackles were playing their opponents, man for man.

GAME FOR ROOTERS.,

The game was one to cheer the heart of the experienced rooter rather than the easual visitor who looks for sensational runs, long kicks. And fine formations that were smashed by the most heroic work, were the features. The fact that men who seemed to be free for 3) and 40 yard runs, were dropped as they shot past apparently boxed ends and tackles, was the game's surprise. No college man could sign for the glories of a Michigan or a Yale football field, for the perfected work was there in the game, and it was one to warm the heart of the oldest lovers of the sport.

HOW IT WAS PLAYED.

The game was played with Coach Maddock more nervous than he has ever been. No one knew better than the coach, howalt would take theh tallest kind of form to win, and no one but Maddock knew how decisive victory or defeat would be for the school. As it was Maddock's work received a vindication of the first order. When he came here three years ago it was Utah's hope to defeat Logan, and the first game between them was with Logan holding the championship.

The University had never known the confidence of winning over a team that amounted to anthing, and was just emerging from the state in which it was her fortune to see the High School team from Salt Lake march off with victory after victory. Joy had never yet run rampant through the student body, to mould it together in a feeling of a common tie, and there had never yet been fires on the campus and on Main street to celebrate the big kill.

CONFIDENCE RAMPANT.

CONFIDENCE RAMPANT.

However the feeling had come gradually of confidence growing upon confidence as Wyoming. Montana, Denver, Colorado College, and the Colorado Aggies were trimmed, each in its turn, and this confidence is now bearing fruit in the greater faith that will follow the raising of Utah's standard to first place in the Rocky Mountains, with no one to whisper that the team needs to go away and get a reputation. To find out that the team could actually score on Boulden in a straight football battle, was something that will make itself felt in the student life permanently.

FIRST HALE.

FIRST HALF.

The first half was a contest of strength in straight football. The second half was a punting match in which Bennion's big boot won honors for his team, and cinched his position on the All-Rocky Mountain eleven. In both halves Utah was heavily penalized, Referee Tobin spoiling chances for touchdowns twice, by shifting U.S. back on 15-yard penalities when the ball was near the Boulder line. Boulder carried the ball 28 yards forward, and Utah took it 385 yards. The game was fought out in Boulder territory. Utah played straight though without changing a man, and time was not taken out once on Utak's request.

The kickoff came at 3:30 o'clock, with west and east bleachers crowded, despite a heavy fall of snow. Bennion kicked off for a net gain of 35 yards on a 50-yard effort. Boulder was forced to kick while Utah rooters went wild watching thehome team really and actually hold Boulder for downs. When the kick was blocked, and Utah got the ball with a loss of only 10 yards, there was more wild cheering, and Utah began to hope. Thirty yards were slashed out in three downs, by Bennion, Russell and McKenna, and then the penalities began. Utah getting 10 yards as the first dose. Bennion's kick was blocked, and Utah by Bennion, Anderson, Peterson, Russell and Bennion Anderson, Peterson, Russell and Bennion then marched forward in splending style for 20 yards on short gains, and Russell was liberated for 30 yards, only to be set back 15 on another penalty. The goal was being approached, however, and the fighting splrit rose to its height. Boulder began to hold.

McKenna swung a 15 around right, and Bennion the middle for only one. Me-

MADDOCK WOULD GO TO THE COAST

His Gridiron Warriors Want to Take a Chance With Los Angeles Teams.

TRIP FOR XMAS VACATION.

It is Being Planned and Will Include Games With Coach Holmes' Team, Occidental College and Pomona.

Utah football prowess cannot find any opportunities on the coast, except in the south, as the Rugby game at Sanford and Berkeley has withdrawn these schools from the football field.

Coach Maddock is up and after a game, however. It is to be with the University of Southern California, over which Coach Holmes, formerly of Utah, presides. Incidentally Pomona College and Occidental College will be taken in, if the faculty gives permission for the western trip. It is planned to make it over the Salt Lake Route during the Christmas vacation, and to use up two weeks in the jaunt. Three games will be taken on if arrangements can be completed.

The decision to make the trip comes after negotiations with Coach Holmes lasting for several weeks. Holmes nas asked for a game, and it was at first thought to be out of the question. Finally, however, Coach Maddock has come to the conclusion that a coast trip wouldn't be a bad thing and he has decided to make the trip, the faculty being willing.

make the trip, the faculty being willing.

The matter will be presented to the faculty at once, and it is expected that permission to make the trip will be given, as it occurs durin the Christmas holidays. One more game remains on the Utah schedule, it is with Logan and will be played Thanksgiving day. Two years ago Logan was badly routed, and last year the game was called on account of a row in which Frew refused to leave the field after being ruled out by the umpire for slugging. The Logan team stood by Frew and at the expiration of the time allowed by the rules in which to resume play, the game was awarded to Utah. One touchdown had been scored.

Just what will happen this year is not certain. Logan showed good form in defeating Montana. Some of the men are old-time players of excellent form, and the game may amount to a contest, especially if Utah relaxes training and becomes over-confident. Light work with probably begin tomorrow night, for the Aggie game, which is to be played in Salt Lake.

Kenna made another, and it was third down with 10 yards to the goal line. No one expected a right end run, and Pitt signalled it, despite the fact that it would carry the ball to the edge of the field. The Boulder end had been drawn in expecting the usual line buck near the goal, and Russell got to the goal line where he dove into a tackler and bowled him over the line for the touchdown.

Bennion falled in a difficult goal, and after taking Boulder's kickoff, Utah began another march to the goal, only to be stopped by Boulder on the 45-yard line on downs. Boulder was forced to kick, and then there was an exchange on kicks for several formations, Utah finally sending Pitt over on a pount from Bennion. The kickout was missed.

SECOND HALF.

SECOND HALF.

The half closed with the ball in Utah's possession near the Boulder goal. The second half was without feature. Boulder rallied to prevent further scoring, realizing that victory was impossible. Punting exchanges became the rule to save the teams, and Utah excelled in this department of the game. Play slowed up till the men began to shiver, but the desire for another touchdown prevented them from agreeing to call the game.

FIGHT FOR THE LEADERSHIP.

It Has Been Waged for Years and Pennsylvania Has Now Put Final Crip in Yost's Boom.

The football season is now well enough advanced for some of the really finished games to be played. On the big gridirons of the east Yale and Princeton have had it out, and Michigan and Pennsylvania. This clears the decks for the final clashes next Saturday and Thanksgiving, everywhere but on the coast, where the season is already closed and the faculty is hurrying the heroes back into the examinations and syllabus sneets. The surprise of the football world to ate has been the decisive defeat of Michigan, by Pennsylvania. The low, cheerful enuckie that accempanies the news comes from the direction of Walter V. Camp of Yale and Coach Stagg of Chicago. You once threatened the football leadership of Yale, and wrote his mitals big and bright right up along side those of Camp, and Walter was said to be afraid to match his Yale wisdom against the Michigan fighting machine. He, however, journeyed down to Chicago and the Chicago-Michigan game each year was really a fight between Yost and Camp, for Camp was really the ring general of the Chicago coaching, and Stagg was his intimate friend.

Then came the day last season when a defense for Michigan was developed and perfected by Stagg and Camp, and the Yost machine bumped into a dead wall. Since then the grave fillers have got in their good work covering up the p.t into which Camp threw the Michiganders, and the action of the Pennsylvania team was something in the order of erecting the headstone at the end of the ceremony. The spell of Michigan scoring power is broken and Camp is again securicy in the saddle at the top of the football world.

The press dispartches on the game between Michigan and Pennsylvania, give date has been the decisive defeat of Mich-saddle at the top of the football world.

The press dispatches on the game between Michigan and Pennsylvania, give the following details of how the score of 17 to 0 was run up:

Pennsylvania's indifferent playing during the present season gave her sympathizers scant hope for victory over her formidable rival from the west, but the spirit and dash the red and blue players showed today repeatedly brought the spectators to their feet. The team as a whole played with the smoothness and precision of a well adjusted machine and the men individually went into each play with such vim and power that Michigan's defense was often disorganized. Throughout the game Pennsylvania showed no letup and appeared to be as strong when the game came to a close ask when it began, notwithstanding that Michigan had the heavier team and that Pennsylvania was playing almost entirely on the offensive.

Pennsylvania and Michigan last met in 1899, when the former won by a score of 11 to 10.

PENNSY KICKED OFF.

PENNSY KICKED OFF.

Hollenback for Pennsylvania kicked to Hammond at 2:25 o'clock. The latter was downed on his own ten-yard line. A few minutes after play began Gaston was removed from the game for running into Garrels behind the line after kicking, and Lavery took his place.

Pennsylvania was penalized 25 yards, or half the distance to her goal, for the foul. This brought the ball to Pennsylvania's 35-yard line from where Garrels falled at a goal from placement.

The ball see-sawed up and down the field and Pennsylvania secured it on a fumble on Michigan's 50-yard line. A forward pass gave Pennsylvania 20 yards and then Holenback, by splendid interference, carried the ball to Michigan's 2-yard line.

SLASHING OFFENSE. SLASHING OFFENSE.

Two plunges put the ball over Michigan's line, Folwell making the touchdown. Hollenback kicked a difficult goal. In a kicking duel in which Pennsylvania had the better of the argument, the ball was finally laid down in Pennsylvania's possession in midfield. On a fake play Lawrence carried the ball 20 yards to Michigan's 35-yard line, where the half ended. ended.

Michigan kicked off for the second half at 3:21.

SECOND SCORE EASY.

A punting duel gave Pennsylvania the ball on Michigan's 40-yard line. This gain in kicking by Pennsylvania was followed up by magnificent work by the line. The plunges by Folwell, Green and Hollen back for good gains carried the ball to Michigan's Il-yard line, where the western men held and secured possession of the ball. Short end runs and plunges by Folwell and Hollenback through, tackles brought the ball in 5-yard jumps to Michigan's 1-yard line. Gheen went through Michigan's left tackle for Pennsylvania's second touchdown. Hollenback kicked goal.
